

Shopping IN THE SCENIC CITY

Quaint Boutiques Meet Big Box Retailers

DID YOU KNOW?

Originated as the Old Stone Fort during the Civil War, Warehouse Row became a warehouse district at the turn of the 20th century. Now in its third life, it is a main fixture of the revitalized downtown area.

SHOPPING IN CHATTANOOGA HAS SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE

– from artisanal local boutiques, to national and international favorites, to big box retailers. Among many options are shopping malls and large, enclosed shopping areas, as well as chic neighborhood centers.

HAMILTON PLACE In the heart of East Brainerd, just off I-75, Hamilton Place is one of the largest shopping centers in Tennessee. With more than 200 stores and restaurants, Hamilton Place Mall has everything an avid shopper's heart desires. Stores specialize in accessories, apparel, health and beauty, home furnishings, jewelry, books, shoes, entertainment, and more. Anchored by retailers such as Belk and Dillards, Hamilton Place also includes fashionista favorites like Ann Taylor, White House/Black Market, and Forever 21. Specialty stores include Barnes & Noble, White Barn, Sephora, and more.

Nearby, outdoor shopping strips Hamilton Corner and Hamilton Crossing provide even more retail therapy. Outside the mall, stores such as Rone Regency, Anna Ball White, Chico's, Eddie Bauer, Rock/Creek, and T.J. Maxx provide additional shopping options. Home furnishing stores in the area include World Market, Pier 1 Imports, Kirklands, and Bed Bath & Beyond, to name a few. Specialty grocery store, The Fresh Market, is nearby, as are dozens of restaurants. Dining options in and around the mall range from traditional favorites to zesty ethnic cuisine. Some establishments include Bonefish Grill, Firebirds Wood Fired Grill, Acropolis Grill, P. F. Chang's, Cheddar's Casual Café, and many more.

NORTHGATE MALL Located off Highway 153 and minutes from downtown Chattanooga, Hamilton Place's sister property, Northgate Mall, is Hixson's full-fledged shopping destination. Stores span the gamut from accessories, apparel, optical, salons and spas, and more. Some of the popular stores include Belk, Old Navy, Victoria's Secret, and ULTA Beauty. Several restaurants inside the mall give shoppers plenty of quick dining options, while additional restaurants and retailers located right outside the mall add to the vast shopping landscape. To keep kids entertained, the Memorial Hospital Hixson Play Area is located in the Belk wing of the mall and features a fun nautical theme. Special events throughout the year are held in the mall's beautiful atrium, including pictures and a pajama party with Santa. Adjacent to the mall, Carmike Northgate 14 includes 3D and jumbo digital screens.

Nearby, the Hixson area offers additional shopping in the form of big box stores and favorite retailers. Stores like Target and Kmart offer a one-stop shopping experience, while Office Depot and Staples provide anything an office needs. In addition, Party City, Gander Mountain, Marshalls, The Home Depot, and more all line HWY 153, offering ease and convenience to shoppers.

NEIGHBORHOOD SHOPPING While you're sure to stumble upon a locally owned shop that'll spark your interest no matter where you wander, there are some spots that are more retail-studded than others. One such sweet spot is the NorthShore, where an eclectic mix of independent, one-of-a-kind small businesses owned by passionate locals dot Frazier Avenue and line One North Shore and Two North Shore. Here, you'll find unique gift shops, upscale boutiques such as Willa Collection and K :: A Boutique by Katherine Roberts, home interior shops, grocers, shoe stores, antique shops, salons, restaurants, and much more. Near NorthShore, Riverview offers tree-lined streets and charming shops, including a florist, a stationary shop, a wine store, an antique shop, and several clothiers. On the opposite end of town, the Southside is ripe with trendy boutiques including a men's shoe store, a women's clothing boutique, art galleries, the Chattanooga Market, a neighborhood butcher, and much more. On the way from NorthShore to the Southside, City Center offers several shops, such as Fischer Evans and Brody Jewelers. In Ooltewah, Cambridge Square is a mixed-use neighborhood for professionals, retailers, and restaurant owners. Thus far, shops include several restaurants, a salon, a yoga studio, and more.

BRADLEY SQUARE MALL Cleveland's Bradley Square Mall offers residents a convenient place to shop and dine. Whether you're looking for books, shoes, apparel, jewelry, or more, the mall has a store to suit your needs. Some favorites include Belk, Bath & Body Works, Aéropostale, and Children's Place. Dining options include family-friendly restaurants Apple-bees, O'Charley's, Steak 'n Shake, and more. Air Bounce provides a plush place for kids to play or an ideal spot to host birthday parties. The center includes a game room, an inflatable bounce zone, a parent zone, and a private party room. In addition, Bradley Square 12 Carmike Cinema shows just-released films year-round.

DOWNTOWN CLEVELAND North of Chattanooga, Downtown Cleveland features a mix of quaint boutiques and shops. A bridal shop, an antique shop, and furniture and decor shops are some favorite features in the area. In addition, an office supply store and more complete the landscape. Taking a stroll down Cleveland's Main Street, shoppers may feel as though they've stepped back to a simpler time and place.
